

WILD ROSE RETRIEVER CLUB

CKC LICENSED RETRIEVER FIELD TRIAL

June 6, 7, 8, 2025

Tofield, Alberta

The Benn Memorial Trophy

We will be presenting the Benn Memorial Trophy to the Amateur high point dog & handler in our two all-age stakes

This trophy commemorates Gord & Marlene Benn, two of the longest serving & founding members of the Wild Rose Retriever Club. Enthusiastic sportsmen, respected Amateurs & students of the retriever game they competed in field trials for many years with their beloved dogs, Clem, Code, Reba, Herbie, George & Emmy.

Generously donated by the Benn's daughters, Lesley & Krista, the trophy depicts a handler, bumpers in hand, sending his dog on a retrieve. Originally given to Gord for judging the 2007 National Open at Iron Bridge, it has been re-purposed as a memorial of the couples dedication to the sport we all love so much. Gun's Up!!!

Remembering Glenn ...

Glenn always made us laugh with his own unforgettable brand of humor. Generous to a fault, his support of community, youth sports programs and our retriever game will always be remembered.

Glenn was active for many years running his dogs in both Canada and the US. This is Glenn & Razz at the 2014 National in Irricana, AB

Signs will direct you to the location of each Stake

Most of the stakes will be held at Burnstadt's property
East side of Range Rd 182, south of Township Rd 484, north of Township Rd 482
53°08'14.7"N 112°32'15.6"W

Thanks so much to our landowners, the Burnstadt and Zeniuk families, who have so generously allowed us to use their land for our trial

Please respect their property & treat it as you would your own
