

June 2013

Hello Everyone,

It seems there is some confusion with the Alberta Kennel Club Summer Classic hosting "The Purina National 2013 - this is not a separate event from the rest of the show - The Purina National is the entire weekend!

This is NOT an invitational only event whereby only certain dogs can enter - EVERYONE who wishes to enter can enter - we invite everyone to enter. 10% of Sunday's entries will be donated to two groups ACTSS (Animal Cancer Therapy Subsidization Society of Alberta) and Lions Foundation of Canada Guide Dogs.

This event is not like the Show of Shows - you enter as you would any other day, our Friday show is limited groups and lots of specialties like every other year, Saturday - Monday are all breed days, fantastic prize money to be won each day:

Prize Money Generously Sponsored by PURINA (Saturday-Monday):

Group 1 - $500 (Saturday-Monday)

Group 2 - $400 (Saturday-Monday)

Group 3 - $300 (Saturday-Monday)

Sunday night Group/BIS/BPIS and Best Overall Junior Handler will be in Congress Hall - this is a formal affair beginning at 5 pm - all breed judging will commence as normal outdoors, and will begin around 8 am. We will be providing light snacks throughout the evening in Congress Hall.

We hope this helps with any questions anyone may have.

We look forward to having you and having a fantastic show - the weather will be awesome as we have already submitted those memos!

Best regards,
AKC Show Committee
