CANINE GOOD NEIGHBOUR INFORMATION

Any dog of any breed may take part in Canine Good Neighbour. The Canine Good Neighbour Program is a 12-step test, that when completed successfully, will ensure that one of our most favored companions, the dog, is accepted as a valued member of our communities right across the country. Canine Good Neighbours can be counted on to present good manners at home, in public places and in the presence of other dogs.

The test is non-competitive and allows dog and handler to demonstrate confidence and control in 12 steps. It assesses the handler and dog's relationship, together with the handler's ability to control the dog. Dogs are evaluated on their ability to perform basic exercises as well as their ability to demonstrate good manners in everyday situations.

The program embraces both purebred and mixed-breed dogs and is fun, rewarding, and useful. It encourages owners to have a better and richer relationship with their dogs. The program also enhances community awareness of responsible dog ownership and the numerous benefits associated with dog ownership.

Please be aware that as the CGN evaluations will be conducted so as not to interfere with the efficient operation of the Rally Obedience trials, all dogs registered for Canine Good Neighbour evaluation will be contacted by email by January 26th and advised on the start of the evaluation.

NEW CCN

CKC Performance Events: We're All In

The Canadian Kennel Club is proud to welcome mixed-breed and unrecognized-breed dogs into our Agility, Obedience and Rally-Obedience Trials. Beginning July 1, 2014, the new CKC Canine Companion program will invite mixed-breed and unrecognized-breed dogs to compete alongside purebred dogs and will share the same level of competition and receive the same titles.

Sign up for your Canine Companion Number

To compete, mixed-breed and unrecognized-breed dog owners must apply for a Canine Companion Number (CCN) and meet specific criteria as set out in the Canine Companion Club Policy.

Applications for a CCN number can be submitted to CKC information@ckc.ca.
