Welcome to the 2013 Prairie Dachshund Club Regional Specialty.

We are very pleased this year to be affiliated with the Alberta Kennel Club Summer Classic.

This 4 day event hosts a significant number of Specialty and All-Breed Events. AKC boasts as being the largest outdoor Dog Show in Canada.

The 2013 AKC Summer Classic is Sponsored by Purina and includes a $10,000 Best in Show award. There are too many extras at this show to list here, so please consult the AKC Premium list to take advantage of all of the action.

Our show site is the Beautiful Spruce Meadows facility located just south of Calgary. Spruce Meadows is a premier horse facility. There is inside and tent benching areas closer to the rings as well as Hander Set ups available for those travelling with many entries. AKC handles these arrangements for all exhibitors.

Please consult the Alberta Kennel Club premium list or the dogshow.ca website - www.dogshow.ca - to find out information pertaining to Parking and Benching.

We will have an RV zone for any of our exhibitors who would like to park close to each other. Though we cannot guarantee your location, we will do our best to have everyone within reasonable shouting distance. RVs are parked as they arrive, so we'll try to arrive together on the Thursday before the show. Please contact Loren Bressers at wagswell@yahoo.ca to be included.

This show is outside and not under cover. Please be prepared for Calgary weather where 'normal' can be anywhere from 10C (50F) to 35C (95F). Bring Sunscreen and Bug repellent just to be safe.

Following the AKC weekend, Edmonton Kennel Club hosts a 4 day show (Aug 8-11). Edmonton is 3 hours north of Calgary and we recommend you take the days between to visit our Beautiful Canadian Rocky Mountains. Visit www.dogshow.ca to obtain information for the Edmonton shows and specialties.
