Please help Jennifer Watson and her family

Jennifer is one of our own and is in need of our assistance. She is currently facing serious health issues and is unable to work as a groomer or as a professional handler. We four girls, Marlene Ness, Nadia Bongelli, Jennifer McClintock and myself, Pam McClintock have put our collective heads together in an effort to raise needed funds to help in reducing the stress and worry of lost income. To that end, we are conducting a silent auction throughout the weekend of the Wildwood Kennel Club Show April 8-10. The auction will continue until noon of the Sunday show. We are delighted with the many donations already received including clothing, jewelry, make up, dog food, handling offers, training, classes and more. If you would wish to contribute items to this most important cause you may contact Marlene Ness on FB or call her at (203) 240-8622.

Along with the silent auction we will have some fun mid day of the Saturday show with 'Chuck a Duck'. You purchase your little rubber duckies and toss them (from a distance) into an inflated pool until there is finally a winner in the pool. You need a good throwing arm and keen eye for this bit of amusement. The ducks are numbered so we know who owns which ones. Ducks can be purchased in advance for $5.00 each from Kassy McCartney. We will also have available small items from 'For The Love of Purebred Dogs' for a donation of your choice, which include key rings, lapel pins and bumper stickers.

We are so very grateful to everyone for their generous contributions. Very special thanks to Dean Dennis for allowing us this opportunity at his show and for his very kind donations of 10 show entries and 10 photos at his future shows.

I know you will all join us in sending love and hugs to Jen, Dale and Jade as together they face the coming challenges.
