Remembering Sharon Smith

I have known Sharon Smith for a long time, although I couldn't tell you an exact date. I do remember us both trialing in Novice at the Hamilton Kennel Club shows in 1985; an event that marked the beginning of many trialing days to come.

Sharon became a member of The German Shepherd Dog Club of London around that time. Who would have known what an amazing role she would come to play in the life of this club!

Sharon married Terry in (or about) 1990 and together they established Tersha Kennels. Their breeding program has produced both conformation, obedience and tracking champions.

She began teaching obedience classes around this time as well, and her students have gone on to have considerable success in the obedience and rally rings. Her loss as instructor is currently being felt very keenly by her students.

Sharon became both a Tracking and an Obedience judge in the 1990's. She and Terry (who was also a Tracking judge) often judged Tracking tests together. The loss of them both will have a huge impact on the tracking community.

Sharon was a popular obedience judge, and when she was judging, she never missed a thing! She told me not too long ago that she had yet to give out a perfect score of 200.

Sharon's real love though, was trialing her own dogs. The most memorable ones, of course, are those which she took to the top levels. The names that stand out are Ch. & OTCh. Winston of Sitara, TD, OTCh. Tersha's Black Bartman, TD, Ch. & MOTCh. Paige of Tersha, and MOTCh. & RGCh. Tersha's Viva Las Vegas. I believe that all these dogs had American and Bermuda titles as well.

Sharon lost Terry, the love of her life in 2009. I know how acutely she felt his loss (as did we all) and I remember how we pulled together to help her as she struggled to adjust to his loss. She did though, and before too long she was back in the ring showing her dogs.

Sharon served as President of The German Shepherd Dog Club of London for many years, as well as functioning as our Tracking Test Secretary and Awards chairperson. Her loss leaves some huge gaps, which we are doing our best to fill.

As the Obedience Chair for The German Shepherd Dog Club of Canada, Sharon was instrumental in the organization of the Obedience Trials at the National. Procuring judges for the event and organizing all the help that is required is no small feat!

Sharon was not only our club leader, she was our friend. We always had a great time when we got together, both socially and in trial situations. She had a fabulous sense of humor and I will always remember her wonderful smile.

To say that Sharon will be missed is an understatement, but I can't think of another way to express it. Rest in peace, Sharon. We love you.

Kay Calvin, President
The German Shepherd Dog Club of London
